ADVISORY NO. 56
Series of 2018

To: All Recruitment Agencies
Medical Clinics
Prospective Applicants

The POEA have received numerous reports concerning individuals roaming around the Embassy of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia and Department of Health (DOH) accredited medical clinics who offer medical certificates and Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA) uploading without the need of undergoing medical examination in exchange for money.

Please be advised that applicants and recruitment agencies found to be using and submitting fraudulent medical certificates shall be subjected to the corresponding administrative sanctions under the 2016 Revised POEA Rules and Regulations Governing the Recruitment and Employment of Landbased Overseas Filipino Workers, as well as criminal liability.

We encourage prospective applicants to refrain from entertaining these individuals and immediately report their activities. You may report their activities to the Anti-Illegal Recruitment Branch through email at < poea.airb16@gmail.com > or calls us at 722-11-89 (Legal Assistance Division) or 722-11-92 (Operations and Surveillance Division).
